- in your flights around Australia's capital cities, and
- avoiding Violation of Controlled Airspace (VCA)

LAUNCH

MORE INFORMATION

Airservices Australia is pleased to invite you and your colleagues to attend the NSW Launch of 'Flying Around'.

'Flying Around' is a new website equipping pilots with improved information to assist, plan and carry out flights in a safe, effective manner. More importantly, this information assists pilots reduce the likelihood of committing a Violation of Controlled Airspace (VCA).

Along with the opportunity to meet and discuss this new initiative with representatives from Airservices Australia, the Civil Aviation Safety Authority (CASA) will also be available and will showcase their new CD/DVD on 'Operations in and around Controlled Airspace'. This product is a further step towards enhancing safety for all aviators using our capital city airports including GAAP aerodromes.

Where: Australian Aviation Museum, Starkie Drive Bankstown Airport

When: 23 March 2005

Time: 5pm start 5.15pm (BBQ and drinks inc)

On behalf of the management and team at Airservices Australia, I hope you are able to join us at the launch and look forward to your participation.

Yours faithfully

Greg Hood
